Mr. Beacon—You Chicago women seem to be very fond of divorce?

Mrs. Wabash—No, indeed. We do not care for the divorce. It is the alimony we want.

Foot ball was a crime in England during the reign of Henry VIII.

Milton Tibbitts, a 15-year-old boy, is editor and proprietor of the Washington Weekly Bulletin. He was recently the recipient of much attention in Boston circles.

A Chicago lad makes a living by securing seats for women in crowded cars. He makes his stand at a thoroughfare that is always thronged and arranges with some well-to-do woman, with her arms full of bundles, or perhaps a baby, to run around and jump on a car before it reaches the corner. When it gets to that point he has a seat reserved for her.

Sol. Smith Russell

It is foolish to make professions that you do not live up to.

An aurora seen from Toronto, Canada, last year has been calculated to be 66 miles high and 2,300 miles from end to end.

AFTER TEA.

A bright little girl who had successfully spelled the word "that," was asked by her teacher what would remain after the "t" had been taken away.

"The dirty cups and saucers," was the prompt reply.

Each Malagasy noble has a dye color of his own which nobody else is allowed to wear.

More public money is spent for brass bands than for schools in the Argentine provinces.

Sixteen million children were found to be enrolled in the schools of this country in June of this year.

Only one marble statue of the human figure with eyelashes is known. It is the sleeping Ariadne, one of the gems of the Vatican, and was found in 1503.

There is at Oxford a portrait of Charles I. composed of minute letters. The head and ruff contain the book of Psalms, the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer.

WITH OR WITHOUT.

Seedy Customer (to drug clerk)—Can you give me something that will stop my headache?

Drug Clerk—Certainly. I've got an excellent preparation here; something I can recommend every time; it will fix you up in good style; in fact it's the only thing we know of that will positively cure headache. The price is 50 cents.

Seedy Customer—I was in hopes you would fix me up for nothing; I haven't got a cent.

"Then the best thing you can do, my friend, is to go home and go to bed; and, take my word for it, you'll be all right in the morning."

We never know the true value of friends. While they live we are too sensitive to their faults; when we have lost them we see only their virtues.

Do not judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other. Do not judge him by his family, for Cain belonged to a good family.

THE PROGRAMME

THE primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quirks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

BELTON & ROOTE,

Advertising Agents.

Evenings.—Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.

Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

Mr. J. Lancaster, who spent five years upon the west coast of Florida in the study of the habits of aquatic birds, of which he has made a specialty, asserts that he has seen frigate birds fly for seven consecutive days, night and day, without ever resting. According to his observations the fatigue of these birds is not excessive, even in such long continuances in the air. In fact the frigate bird can easily and almost without the flap of the wing, not only maintain herself, but also fly with a speed of nearly a hundred miles an hour. The spread of the wings extended varies between eleven and thirteen feet.

The Fencing Master

Brightest and Best of all Comic Operas

PRESENTED IN ARTISTIC AND MAGNIFI-
CENT MANNER BY AN UNEXCELLED
COMPANY OF FIFTY ARTISTS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF FRED. C. WHITNEY.

All Scenery Special! Rich Costumes! Augumented Orchestra!
Beautiful Picturesque Ensemble!

AS an attraction for the thousands visiting London during Fair week, Manager Roote has secured that most popular and pleasing of all comic operas, "The Fencing Master." To the majority of London Theatre goers, the opera is already familiar, but there is an added element in it that on the coming visit will give it a new zest and make it a delightful surprise. The new feature is Dorothy Morton as Francesca. Not only a marvelously gifted singer, she has the indescribable charm of face, figure and fascination that make her the ideal heroine of DeKoven and Smith's romantic story. Her appearance in other cities has simply been a succession of triumphs. The balance of the company is particularly strong in every part. The Fortunio this season is David Torrence, a high baritone of excellent method and strong dramatic powers. The chorus especially is rich in beauty, voice and figure. The scenery is new and the costumes more resplendently handsome than ever. Signor Tomasi, one of the best directors in the country, will lead a largely augmented orchestra. So for lovers of music: to those who delight in having the eye pleased while the ear is charmed; in fact to all who seek the picturesque and the wholesomely delightful in theatrical amusements, "The Fencing Master" presents itself at the Opera House Wednesday, Sept. 19th.
